Beyond the dreams of yesterday
So far above the clouds
We reach to find ourselves today and see what we are now.

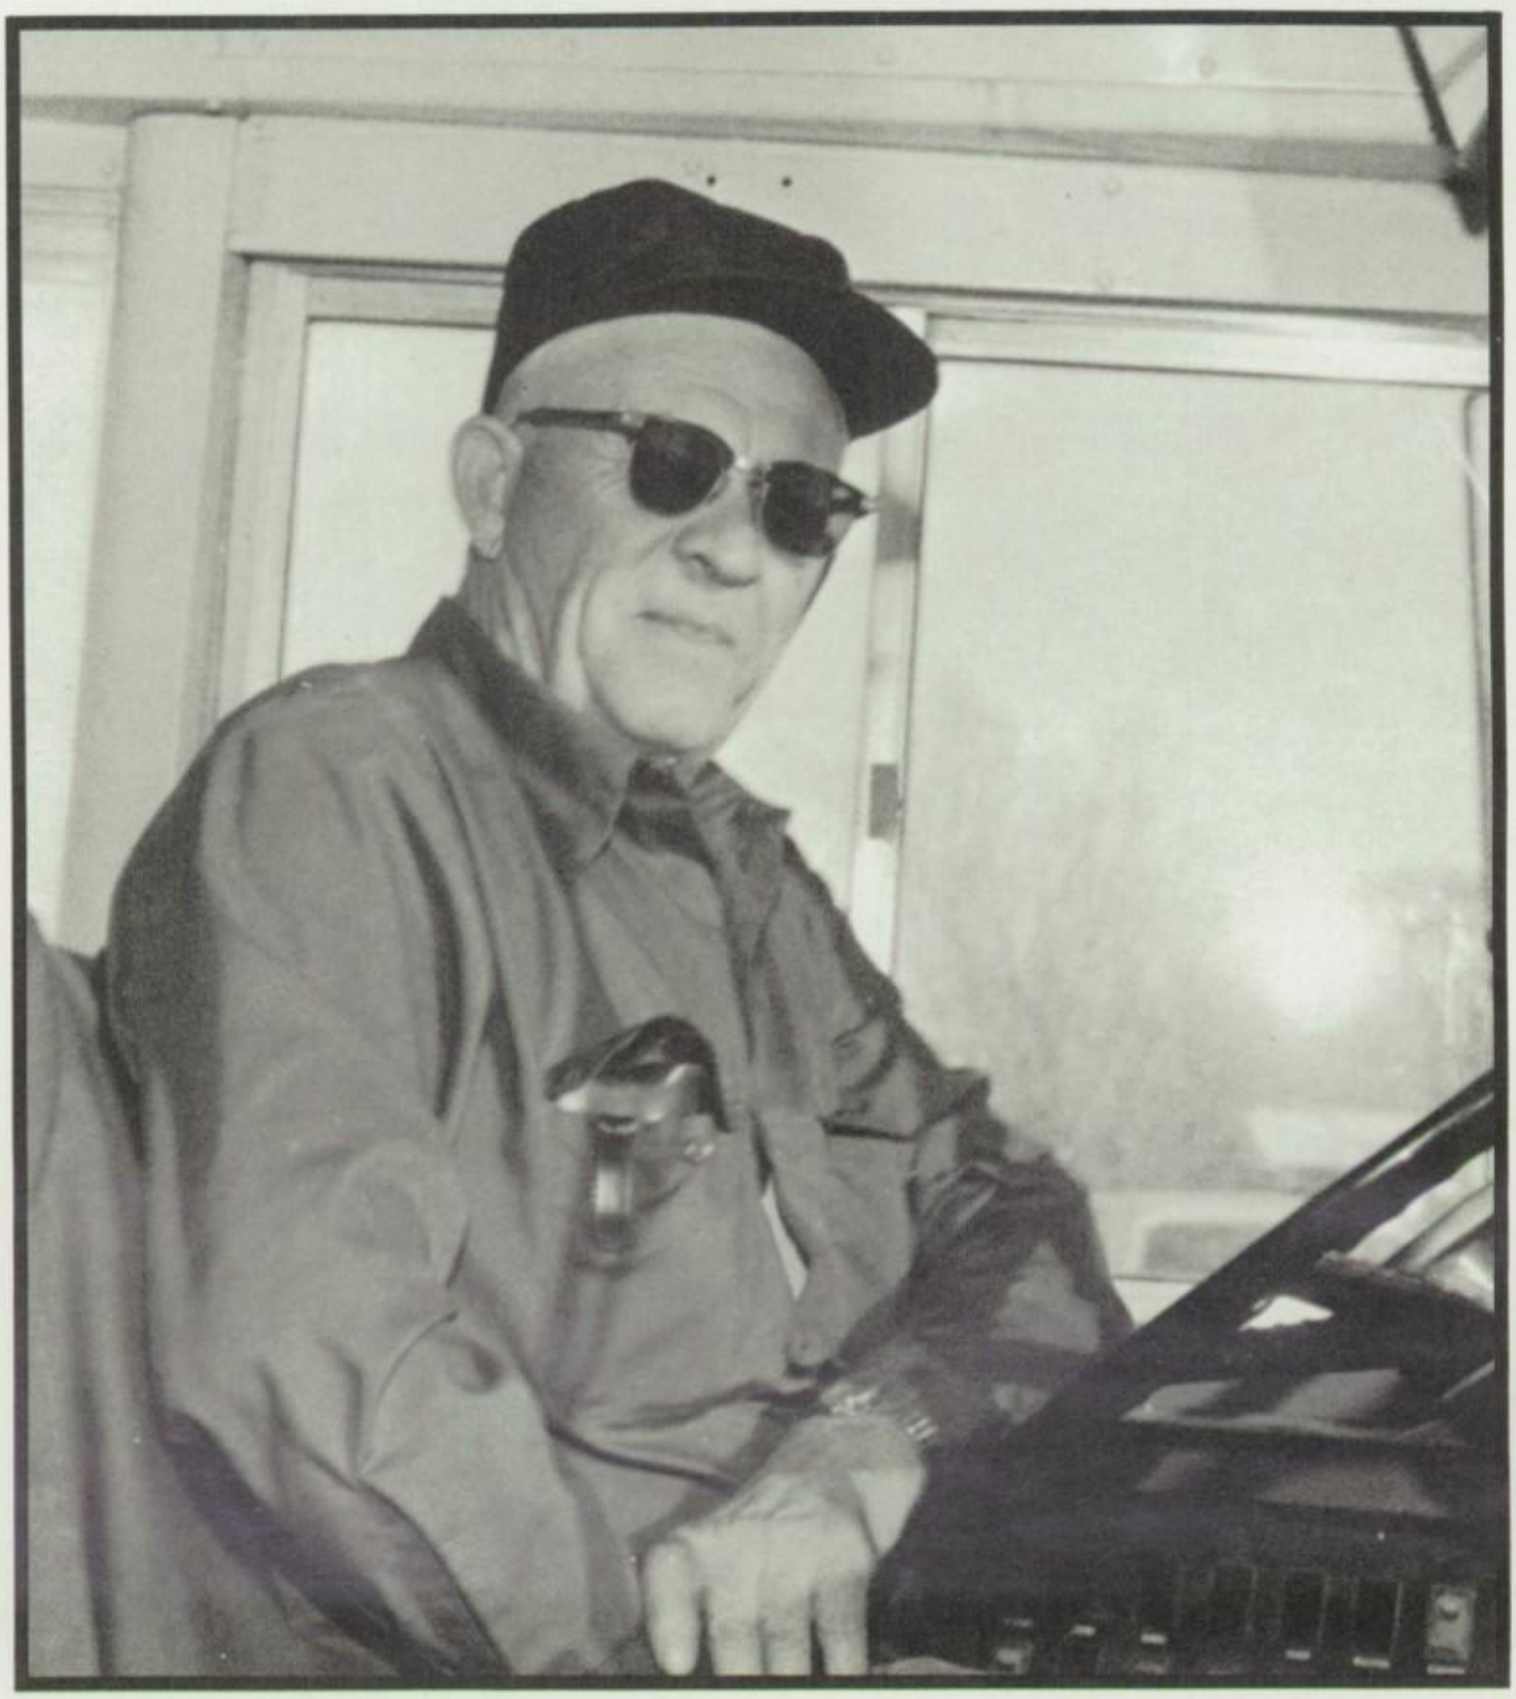
MR. GEORGE FADHL



George Fadhl started as the West Route bus driver in 1953 and has driven that route for 22 years. Road conditions aren't always the best, but it is a rare occasion when George does not get students to school. Special occasions are not forgotten. He's the Easter Bunny, Santa Claus, the "Great Pumpkin" and one of Colstrip High and Elementary School's most avid fans. It is with the utmost appreciation that we dedicate the 1975 Coaldust to George Fadhl.

CLASS OF

CLASS PROPHECY

Looking out over his huge plantation on the outskirts of Colstrip, Montana, Rick Durham can see his workers, Clint Posey and Randy Altergott, slaving away in the fields. Actually, they don't do that much, but they're out there all the time--true dedecation! About that time the foreman of the plantation, Dan Losey and his wife Carol, (who is also head cook and bottle washer) drive up in their new Cadillac convertiable with a carload of people. What?! Look in the back--there's Howard Waples and Moxie Dunning who were just let out of jail by Judge Debby Stover, wife of world-reknowned chemist Bruce Stover. And who should be in the car also,but Kelly Keyes--manager of a general store in Flat Tire, Montana. It looks as though there's going to be a class reunion!

It seems that word of a party got out because right behind Dan and Carol's car is an old pickup filled up with cases and cases of Coors beer. Sure enough, it's Don Beydler and his hired hand, Mike Miller, Word has it that Don now owns a large irrigated farm somewhere in Wyoming. Sitting on top of all the beer is--who else--Charlie Vincent and Jr. Haines. They say Don picked them up at a rodeo on his way up. Charlie and Jr. are supposed to be top winners in the R.C.A. for this year. Why, what's that over in the field? It's a person dressed in green Army fatigues complete with gun, and shouting, "Kill that dog!" Who else! Jeff Benson! Puffing and panting, Jeff tells us that he was just on tour in Europe and he said he saw Debbie Fadhl. She sends her regards and regrets to inform us that she's unable to attend the reunion as she and her husband and ten kids are busy running a Tastee Freez in the Swiss Alps.

Suddenly, out of a low-flying plane jump Mike Clave and John McRae, who are now generals in the U.S. Air Force. John's parachute had just barely opened before he hit the ground. Good Grief!! Ty Wilbur and Irvin May--in a candy apple red Jaguar! Ty and Irvin are now co-chairmen of a large chewing tabacco firm in Seattle.

Rick Altergott just flew in on his new Lear Jet having left his editorial staff of Playboy and Penthouse busy putting together next month's issue. Arriving with him are Sheila McRae and Sandy Curran, his readers' favorite Bunny and Pet of the Month!

"H and R" Block Speelman is unable to attend the reunion as he was called to Iran for consulation with the Arab oil interests. His private secretary, Debe Knudsen, will follow with the cocktail shaker.

We have just been notified that Reverend Keith Schneider will be delayed until tomorrow, as an axle on his wagon broke and he lost a wheel. The Reverend will bless us with evening services tomorrow at 6:00 p.m.

Those highway queen--drivers Diana Kukes and Val Hayes, just roared up in an armored truck. Becky Gillin, proud owner of Becky's barbequed burgers, who moonlights as a guard, jumps out of the back of the truck, revealing the newest Paris spring fashion--a size 7, Becky's dream. Diana and Val are delivering a shipment of Acapulco Gold to the state. Not far behind, on her ten-speed, is the ecology-minded wife of J. Rogers, president of Montana Power Company., Donaleen. She has just returned from the Olympics where she only won one gold medal. Better luck next time, Dumbutt!!

Once the party gets well under way, we are shocked to see two wild Indians dashing across the dance floor. But after washing off their warpaint in the men's room, we are relieved to discover that it's only Ross and Terry--co-owners of "One Bear Brother's Massage Parlor" in downtown Busby, Montana. They brought along two of their employees-- who else?? Jeneen Spang and Dixie Wilson.

Tagging along behind them is a regular customer--Tim Shaver. Tim tells us he's well and living at the University of Montana, where he's the perennial freshman class President. He says everyone votes for him every year because he knows his way around campus so well- he should, after 20 years!

Glancing around the room, Rick sees some more of his classmates. There's Greg Vincent who now has a Bong Factory in Dead Roach, Kansas. With him is his loyal accountant, Jean Snider.

Jean tells us that she heard from Troy Cozzens not too long ago. Seems that poor Troy is really lonesome on the island of his dreams--Alcatraz. What he's in for, nobody knows.

And, look--who's that distinguished looking fellow over there? Why, it's Stanley Fleming. According to Stan, he's enjoying his position as President of Moo University. He says it's the udder university. When he's not working, Stan plays basketball on his private court. The court is under the careful supervision of Roger Olwon--head cusodian.

Oh what's that smell? Why, it smells like some of Becky's barbequed burgers. The maids are carrying them and other assorted refreshments on huge trays. Lo and Behold--the maids are none other than Gene Wallis and Roxanna Brown. They tell us that Rita Nelson used to be a maid, too; but has since marrried and is presently living in Burtco trailer court in Rock Springs, Wyoming.

As the night goes on, the reunion turns into a huge party--bringing back memories of that one and only Senior party. And so, we once again bid adieu to the one and only class of "75"

I, Randy Altergott, will my garden to Jr. and Charlie.
I, Rick Altergott, will my bong to any unsuspecting Junior.
I, Donaleen Batey, will my track medals to my brother Bill, so he will know what it is like and my ability to get involved in school activi ties to Charlie Snider.
I, Roxanna Brown, will my happiness in marraige to Jeneen Spange.
I, Jeff Benson, will my Big Smith to my cousin Jan.
I, Mike Clave will my mechanical ability to Tom Shahan, my ability with girls to Scott McRae, my artistic ability to Mr. Spangler, my ability to get along with the faculty and administration to Stanley Widner, and my trips to Wyoming to Doryld Watson.
I, Troy Cozzens, will my roachmobile and accessories to Mr. Maier in hopes of changing him to a convert, my roach clip to Tom Shahan, my long curly hair to Van Golder, my ability to pass school without doing homework to my brother Kelly, my drumming skills to Bruce McRae because he needs them, my artistic talents to "Calvin" Spangler, and my ability with women to Buzzy Ford.
I, Sandy Curran, will my 10 years of music lessons to Mr. Hayes so he won't make so many mistakes.
I, Moxie Dunning, will my hair to Von Golder.
I, Rick Durham, will my waist-waders to Tom Shahan, because he gets down a littel deep at times.
I, Debbie Fadhl, will my smile to Joleen Benson.
I, Stanley Fleming, will my fat to Coach Hosley with the prayers that it may help him to keep his balance, think straight, and keep his mind off "Horseshoes".
I, Becky Gillin, being of unorganized mind and out of shape body, will my musical know-how to Randy Sopher, my gorgeous fingernails to Bonnie Jensen, and my ability to hit bottom everytime on the speed bumps to my Mom and Dad, since it's their car anyway.
I, Junior Haines, will my football ability to Tom Shahan.
I, Val Hayes, will my spirit to Ord Wilbur, my sanity to Jackie Blair, and my place on the bus to Anita One Bear, who needs the room.
I, Kelly Keyes, will my long hair and my insulated T-shirt to Mr. Delamater so he can get off on a tangent.
I, Diana Kukes, will my hair to Dennis Moncur, my cigarettes to Mr. White, and my size 3½ tennis shoes to Jim McRae.
I, Carol Laib, will my ability to play my tenor sax to my brother Rodney, for he will need it next year.
I, Dan Losey, will my crusty undershirt to Mr. Maier.
I, Irvin May, will Mr. Maier a pair of pants that will come past the top of his cowboy boots.
I, Roger Olson, will my hair to Joe Curran so his head won't get sunburned.
I, Ross One Bear, will my long flowing hair to Benny Speelman so he'll fit in with the rest of the crowd.
I, Keith Schneider, will my hurdling ability to Jay Streeter and my ability to spell to Lennie Kapptie.
I, Tim Shaver, will my going 1 minute late to lunch from physics to whoever deserves it.
I, Jeneen Spang, will my monthly centerfold of Playgirl to Jackie Blair.
I, Orville Speelman, will my cheerfulness and coordination to Tom Shahan.
I, Gene Wallis, will my collection of absent slips to Gloria Giesick.
I, Howard Waples, will my stash in locker 15 to the class of "78". All they have to do is find it.
I, Charlie Vincent, with a very sound mind and even a body will my jumping ability to Todd Bertch, my 5th period student hall to the freshmen and sophomores, my aiblity to get along with the teachers to my little brother Tom, my short hair to Mark Whitewold, and my good times to Jan Benson.
I, Ty Wilbur, will my guitar and amp to Chuck Laib so he can wail in stage band next year.
I, Sheila McRae, will my ability to get in late and not have anybody find out to my brother Bruce, because he already has a head start on me.
I, Jean Snider, will my fingernails to anybody who would be dumb enough to want them and my ability to get away with anything with Mom and Dad to my sister Sue, because she needs it.
I, Rita Nelson, will my ability to get along with the P.E. teachers to my brother Gordon.
I, Debe Knudson, will my ability to miss school to anyone who has perfect attendance.
I, Bruce Stover, will my skiing ability to Randy Sopher.
I, Debby Sessum, will my ability to type to Lennie Kapptie.
I, Greg Vincent, will my spot on the Student Council to anyone who pledges to abide by the following:
1. Retrieve Mr. Medved from hiding and bring him to all meetings.
2. Secure a meeting place away from the booing, mockery, and laughter of the fellow students.
3. Pick up all pop cans, candy wrappers and collect the Mad Magazines after each meeting.

I, John McRae, will my height to Ernie Brewer.
I, Don Beydler, will my ability to make a 14 second pin at Divisional to Steve Giesick.
I, Mike Miller, will my nickname "Shiftin' Bull" to Bill Batey for next years football cause he's going to need it.
I, Dixie Wilson, will my frosted hair to Tracy Little.
I, Clint Posey, will my good times in Study Hall to anyone who can handle them.
I, Terry One Bear, will my ability to do whatever it is that I can do, to whoever it is that is fool enough to take it.
We, the Class of '75, will our class colors to anyone who can figure out what they are; our fat band account to the freshman who are already $50 in the hole; to the Sophomores our nautral ability to do everything right; and to the Class of '76, we will our ability to always agree on everything.

Thomas L. McKeown, Superintendent

It has been a rewarding experience working with the students of Colstrip High School, an experience that has been satisfying and provided me a great deal of pleasure.

To the Graduating Class of 1975, I offer you my congratulations and best wishes on reaching another milestone in your life.

We have made every effort to provide you with the necessary skills, now you must provide your ambition, desires, dreams and ideals to reach your desired goals in life.

In reaching for your desired goals, make wise use of your skills, time and work for a better understanding of mankind.

Mr. A.J. Maier, High School Principal

TO THE STUDENTS OF COLSTRIP HIGH SCHOOL

The 1974-1975 school year began with new programs, higher goals and a demand for a sense of greater repsonsibility on the part of each student. The first two areas were successful because of the success of the third. We experienced fewer problems and fewer failures. Such progress does not "just happen". It is the result of student dedication, school spirit, cooperation and most important of all, students that are responsible. Such characteristics resulted in a great year at Colstrip High. Let us continue in this direction!

A typical librarian??

The library added many new books this year. Suggestions for titles came from students and teachers along with recommendations from professional literature. Fifty-three books for both the elementary and high school were purchased with money collected over the last two years. A new addition to the library was a microfilm reader with cards on career education.

This year Student Council had meetings every Monday. They tried to help the students by having a survey to see how the students felt about the school and worked from that. They also had the Spring Carnival and managed to get out of the hole.

A Student Council exchange with Terry High School was held. This proved to be the most valuable experience of the year. Because we were able to see that both schools has basically the same problems and that there is no easy solution to them.

GIRL'S 'A' SQUAD BASKETBALL

Co-Captains: Donaleen Batey and Rita Nelson

Why do I always have to play right field?

The A-Squad basketball girls really hustled and worked hard this season. Their defense was good and their offense was much better than last years'. We are still weak in the scoring department and several games were lost because of foul trouble. Rita Nelson made second team and Donaleen Batey earned honorable mention at the District tournament. Debbie Monahan and Teresa Sopher performed well in the guard positions and Debbie Boese did well in the forward position. The bench for the girl's A-Squad gained valuable experience and should play well next year.

You mean me??

Memories are made of things
That happen every day,
Moments as we live them,
Things we do or say.

Little bits and pieces
Of laughter mixed with tears,
Paragraphs and pages
Written through the years.

The friendships we remember,
Mistakes that we regret,
The ending of a love
We never could forget.

But since memories keep building,
Each day can be the start
Of making new and happy ones
To store within the heart.
